The Epiphany of the Lord

January 5, 2020

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

As the world returns to “normal” after the Christmas Holiday, the Christmas decorations are put away, the social calendar of parties and gatherings slow, fewer cards and greetings arrive in the mail, and we turn our attention to the hard winter months ahead and, of course, tax season. But for the next week, at least, the Church continues to celebrate.

Christmas, of course, is not simply a day or a singular observance, but one that continues to unfold through an entire season of observances and celebrations. The liturgy of the Church reflects this in a series of ever-widening revelations of the son of God. On Christmas during the “Mass at night”, we see the angels singing over the crib of the Christ Child, with his parents at his side. At the “morning” Mass, a small gathering of shepherds come to see the child and give him worship... the threesome is now extended to the local community of those who were physically able to be there. A few days later, on the Feast of Mary, the Mother of God, we hear of how the shepherds returned home, and on the eighth day, the child was taken to be circumcised. Circumcision was the sign given to Abraham which set him and his sons before God as a nation. It would also be the first way that the Christ would give his blood for the salvation of his people. The circle is now expanding... from family to community to nation. On Epiphany, we hear the familiar story of the coming of the Magi... the kings or ‘wise men’ from the East. They come to worship from their far off lands, showing how this child would be the king and ruler of many nations... family to community to nation to world. The final celebration of the season next weekend is the Baptism of Our Lord. On this occasion, we hear that Jesus is the beloved Son of God. We also come to know that those who are baptized in Christ become true sons and daughters of God. And so in the Baptism of our Lord, we progress from Christmas being a revelation to a family unit to a community to a nation and a world, and now to all those who would be baptized in the faith of the only Son of God: people of not only of all places and nationalities, but of all time as well. In other words, God is revealed to the entire human family in the Lord’s Baptism.

And so in the vision and imagination of the Church, Christmas is not complete on Christmas Day, but rather when we have had some time to let the profound, multi-layered reality of Emmanuel... “God is With Us”... to settle upon us. God was truly with us in the reality of history in time and space, and we hear him say before he ascended to heaven that he will remain with us until the end of time. The reality of his presence now is not lessened in the least, except that it requires us to see with the eyes of faith and to hear through the sacramental economy of the Church that he established to preach and minister his Eternal Word. Faith is given as a gift and a virtue and should not be considered a mere consolation or ‘crutch’ or ‘substitute’ for our own time where empirical proof for that which we believe is thwarted. There were those who saw the living and breathing Lord in the flesh and failed to believe, but we who have his Word and Sacraments, who have not ‘seen’ and yet believe (as was explained to ‘doubting Thomas’), already participate in the graces of the supernatural realm.

The Magi’s journey is recorded by history and legend to bear witness to the divine person for whom they searched, that we can grow in faith. By celebrating the entire season of Christmas from Christmas Day through the Epiphany and even the celebration of our Lord’s Baptism, we see how Christmas is not just a historical event of two thousand years ago, but Christmas is an event that continues to echo into our own age.

Thank you to all who have helped make this year’s Christmas celebration special, —decorating, providing music and ministry, and other efforts during the season. On behalf of a grateful parish community, praise to God for all you do now and all year long!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Kindness Matters in Families

As our students and staff return to school this week, our eighth grade class will lead our next unit of faith formation about the Fruit of the Holy Spirit—Kindness. The Bible is clear that we are to treat people how we want to be treated, which is with kindness, respect, love, and honor. Kindness is the willingness to do acts of compassion and give to others above and beyond what we owe them. As members of the St. Dominic School family, we are grateful for our students' families who partner with our school staff to help our students understand that kindness matters in families. We will continue to speak words of encouragement to each other at home and at school. Since we want people to see us, know us, and include us as a friend, our job is to turn this around and treat everyone as we want to be treated. We need to be kind to every student, not just our friends but also the student who we may not know as a friend, yet. We are called to go beyond and show kindness to everyone. Our daily prayer during morning assembly will be the following Family Prayer composed by Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore.

A Family Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family.

Enlighten our hearts and minds that we may live more fully this vocation to love.

In our daily life and work, may we reflect the self-giving love which you, O Father, eternally show with your Son and the Holy Spirit.

Let your love be evident in the peace that reigns in our home and in the faith we profess and live.

May our family always be a place of generosity, understanding, forgiveness and joy.

Kindly give us the wisdom and courage to be witnesses to your eternal design for the family; and grant that the Holy Family of Nazareth may always guide our path to holiness as a family.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Fruit of the Holy Spirit—Kindness

During the month of January, Mrs. Donna Richmiller and our eighth grade class will lead the morning assemblies and the Holy Moments Mass to help our school and parish understand the Fruit of the Holy Spirit—Kindness. Our eighth grade class will be helping us learn how to show kindness to others. They will teach us the Bible verse "Treat others the same way you want them to treat you." Luke 6:31 NASB In addition, our eighth graders will encourage us to show kindness to someone who may not always be kind to us. We will learn about ways that we can include someone who is lonely, encourage someone who is sad, or honor someone who is overlooked.

Your Assistance is Needed:

We are in need of men and women to serve at funerals. This important ministry has not been included in the Stewardship Catalog. Please contact the parish office 222-5996, Paul Soebbing or Deacon Harry with questions or to volunteer. You do not need to have experience in serving-we have experienced servers that will show you what you need to know. This is a beautiful ministry supporting members of our parish community when a loved one has passed away. Funeral Servers serve at mass during the funeral mass. So volunteers need to be available during the weekdays and Saturdays. We are trying to build up our list. Thank you.

Must be 21 to participate.

Butterfly Support ministers are available to help prep-plan funerals. They have already had a request. This is particularly helpful if you do not have immediate family or family close by. You may contact a minister directly or call the office (222-5996). The Butterfly Support minister will provide copies of your plan to share with others including your funeral home of choice. We are very thankful for our Butterfly Ministers who are willing to provide this additional valuable service.

Hospital stay— If you are in the hospital, please specify St. Anthony of Padua Church as your parish, as well as telling them you are Catholic otherwise we will not know that you are there. Also, family members, please let the Parish office know that you have a loved one in the hospital.

MOVING???

If you are moving, please call the parish office 222-5996 to give us your new address. We get charged for any returned newsletters or mailings.
