The Thirty-third Week of Ordinary Time asks us to consider “investments”. Certainly we all understand how important it is to save for retirement, or to put back funds for our kids’ college educations, or to save for a major purchase, such as a home or a car. Financial advisors remind us how we must balance the blend of risk and reward in our investments. For things we cannot lose, like a retirement ‘nest egg’, which can take many years to build up, normally the advice is to assume a very conservative approach. On the other hand, business owners and entrepreneurs know that often it is necessary to take a fair amount of risk in order that the business might expand and be successful.

Jesus understands this trade-off, I think, as he presents his parable. The servants were given ‘talents’—units of money—which they were to invest and from that investment, provide their master a financial gain. Two of the servants did just that, making a return on the investment, and the master praised their work and gave them greater responsibility. Another servant hid the money though, hoping not to incur the wrath of the master if the money were lost. He was condemned by the master. The moral of the story appears to be that while the fear of loss is rightfully severe, even more frightening should be the failure to invest what little we have, which has been given by the master in the first place, so that the master may have a return on his money. Of course, this story is not a tale about the adventures of money-changers... it is a parable about managing our fear and accepting even personal risk to promote the growth of the Kingdom of God.

There are many Christians who, giving up on becoming ‘saints’ in the truest sense of the word, simply want to make sure that they “made it”. They have not committed serious sin, they have stayed away from a dissolute life, they are good spouses and parents and workers in the community. As their life’s work goes before them, it seems unnecessary (and perhaps foolish) to make extraordinary risks which might put eternal salvation in jeopardy. Holding a conservative, defensive faith is actually not a bad position to take if we really do consider our salvation the most important thing in our lives.

But, I think Jesus wants to challenge us to think bigger than ourselves and our own salvation, and to consider if there is something that we can risk for him and his Kingdom. What has the Christian faith called you to risk? How have you been invited to invest your time and talents and treasure into the Kingdom of God? I wonder sometimes about the courage and zeal of those who have given up their homes and even their lives to be missionaries at the very edge of the civilized world. That would take an amazing amount of faith to bear that kind of risk well. But consider the reward! Not everyone is called to be a missionary, but there are so many other smaller ways to ‘take a risk’ in the work of promoting evangelization. It is ultimately not just for our own good, but for the salvation of souls that we proclaim Christ, who is not only the focal point of our worship, but the harvest-master who justly receives the fruits of our labors.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Holy Moments Mass Recognizes Our Seventh Grade Class

Once each month our parish recognizes the St. Dominic School class that leads our daily Holy Moments Morning Meeting by inviting the class and their families to our Holy Moments Mass at St. Anthony Church. This month we recognize our seventh grade class for their leadership with faith formation about the Holy Heroes Saint John Paul II and Saint Faustina. During the month of November, the seventh graders along with their teacher, Miss Hope Glide-well, have shared the Holy Moments in the life of Saint John Paul II including the way he taught others how to give the best and the worst of our lives to Christ through prayer, and how to forgive others just like Jesus. Each day, we hear a story about the Holy Hero that relates to our life so we notice our own Holy Moments. At St. Dominic School, we experience Holy Moments everyday and we are thankful for the callings of the Holy Spirit inviting us to be just like our Holy Heroes, the Saints.

The Gene Grawe Fund would like to remind everyone to think about purchasing gift cards to support our Catholic Schools and students. Almost 500 families participate in the tuition support through the Grawe Fund. This academic year $319,635 was given to support tuition costs with an average of $703 to each family. There is now a new option for supporting the schools that EVERYONE can help make a difference to our schools. When purchasing gift cards, and you do not have a student to designate the funds to, you can name one of the Catholic Schools and a check will be given to the school at the end of the year. So now you can purchase gift cards & designate St. Anthony's/St. Dominic's for all of your purchases.

Purchasing these cards costs you nothing and goes a long way toward helping cover the costs of a Catholic education. The merchants discount the cards – you pay the face value! The fund receives from 2% to 20% from the vendors for us to sell their cards. It is a win-win for all. How wonderful a program!

This year has been difficult in many ways. Even the Grawe Fund has seen an impact. We would like to be able to continue to support the students and how much more that support will mean this coming school year. If you want more info about how it all works, stop by or call 217-214-0169.

The Grawe Fund office is located in St. Peter's Church Lobby and is open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 7:30 am to 5 pm. Thursday 7:30 am to 7 pm and Saturday 9-1. There's also many local merchants that let you pay your bill to the Gene Grawe Fund. You may see all of the merchants available at genegrawefund.org or stop in St. Peter's Church lobby, where we are located. Thank you from the Grawe Fund and all the students and families of Catholic Education for your support. JoAnn Witte, 217-257-3231
