March 28, 2021 — Passion (Palm) Sunday

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday, when we commemorate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Over the next week as we celebrate Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil, we are called into the drama of the deepest mysteries of our faith. We re-live these mysteries in our own time as if we were there at the Last Supper, as if we were standing at the cross, and as if we were looking into the empty tomb. God wishes reveal his love to us as we attend to his Eucharist and his Cross, and as we see in his lifeless body, the price for our redemption. These particular days help us come to terms with the drama of that sacrifice which is no less real and no less effective for our salvation in our time. Every time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we come face to face with the living God. I invite you to take the greatest advantage of the opportunities which are being offered for the celebration of the sacraments and for participation in the liturgies of these days. May God continue to bless you and may this be a most Holy Week!

Holy Week services and activities will be held at the following times:

Palm Sunday — Masses are at their regular times. Confessions will be heard at Blessed Sacrament Church (1119 So. 7th Street) at 2pm until all are heard.

Chrism Mass — Tuesday, March 30 at 6:30 pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. This is the annual Mass celebrated by Bishop Paprocki to bless and consecrate the new oils to be used in sacramental celebrations. At this Mass, all the priests of the diocese gather to re-affirm their ordination promises before the bishop and before the gathered diocesan Church. All are encouraged to attend.

Holy Thursday — No Mass can be celebrated in the morning, therefore there will be no 7:30 am Mass. The Three Days ("Triduum") of the Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection begin with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 pm, with adoration of the Blessed Sacrament taking place afterwards.

Good Friday — Mass is not be celebrated on this day, but the liturgy of the Passion and Death of the Lord, with the proclamation of St. John's Passion, General Intercessions, the Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion will be observed at 6:30 pm.

Holy Saturday — Our Catechumen and Candidate will use the morning to rehearse and meditate on the mysteries they are about to encounter. A final opportunity for confessions will be available starting at 3:00 pm in the church until all are heard. There is no 4:00 pm or 6:30 pm Saturday night Mass on Holy Saturday at St. Anthony, or anywhere else, as the evening liturgy may not begin until after the sun has left the sky and night has begun.

The Great Easter Vigil begins after nightfall. At 8:00 pm, the Church gathers around a bonfire to light the Easter Candle and proclaim anew the Resurrection of our Lord. After the proclamation of the Word and welcoming of new Catholics through their baptism or profession of faith, the Church gathers for the first Eucharist of the Resurrection. For those who have not been to this celebration in some time, especially if they have little children, be advised that this celebration will last probably a bit longer than two hours.

Easter Sunday — The whole Church throughout the world gathers to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. Mass times at St. Anthony's are the usual Sunday times: 8:00 am and 10:30 am. We will also have Mass at noon on Easter Sunday at St. Anthony in an effort to encourage people to spread out their attendance through the morning. Weather permitting, this Mass will be held on the front lawn of St. Anthony Church. Please bring your own seating (lawn chairs, blankets, etc). The Triduum ends on the evening of Easter Sunday.

After Easter Sunday, the celebration of the Resurrection continues 50 full days, with the first eight days of Easter being a privileged 'octave', ending in the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday the weekend after Easter. Each Sunday invites us to repeat the celebration of Easter Sunday with through and including the great Feast of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. As important as Lent has been to the spiritual nourishment of the faithful, the Easter Season presents its own opportunities to encounter the grace and mercy of our Lord.
