June 13, 2021 — Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In years when the Fourth of July falls on a Sunday, the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua (June 13) and St. Dominic (August 8) also fall on Sundays. When a parish patronal Feast Day falls on Sunday, the Church gives us the opportunity to celebrate that feast as a Sunday solemnity, recognizing the importance of the relationship of God's people with their patron saint.

St. Anthony of Padua (1195-1231) was a Franciscan Friar from Portugal, given the Christian name of Fernando at birth. Son of a wealthy family, he entered the Augustinian Order in about 1210. He was ordained a priest when about 19 years old and named the guestmaster of his abbey. In that role, he got to know a small band of Franciscan friars who moved into the area. He was attracted by the simple lifestyle of this order which had only been formed 11 years before, and lived in such evangelical poverty and joy. Inspired by the example of Franciscan martyrs in Northern Africa, he petitioned his superiors to join the Franciscan Order, and was admitted in about 1217-18. He took the name "Anthony" in honor of "St. Anthony the Great" who was a great ascetic of the 3rd-4th centuries. From there he was eventually sent on a missionary trip to Africa, fulfilling his inspiration to do such work, but his ill-health required his return to Italy shortly thereafter.

St. Anthony became known as a great preacher, eloquently teaching the faith from a deep knowledge and love of Sacred Scripture. In 1222, he was called on by his superiors to preach at an ordination, when an oversight had taken place, leaving nobody among a group of Franciscans and Dominicans ready to give the homily. His unprepared remarks were so warmly received, that as of that day he was hailed as a most learned preacher and teacher of the faith. He soon thereafter met St. Francis, the founder of the order. St. Francis had a natural distrust for theological studies, because of the tendency of such studies to lead students away from the simple life of prayer and service that he envisioned for his Order, but Francis found in Anthony a kindred spirit who would be perfect to aid in the formation of the brothers seeking ordination.

Many accounts of Anthony's feats as a miracle-worker flow from his work. He preached to fish when heretics treated him with contempt, finding the fish more receptive to his words than those aligned against him. He is reckoned as the patron saint for lost things, perhaps by his "finding" of a book of the Psalms which disappeared from his community. He preached so eloquently on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist that a story exists of Anthony bringing a starving mule down to its knees in adoration, rather than feasting on its fodder when presented with the Eucharistic Lord.

Anthony would fall ill again, dying in 1231. In an exceptionally short time period of only ten years, he would be proclaimed a saint. In 1946, Pope Pius XII proclaimed Anthony the "Evangelical Doctor" of the Church in recognition of how fresh and compelling his teaching and preaching were, both for the people of his time as well as for the Church in ages since.

We celebrate Anthony as our Parish Patron, recognizing the deep Franciscan heritage of our community. We celebrate the unity under which then name "Anthony" has called us and those who have gone before to greater faith in our Lord through the love of Scripture and the example of pastoral charity exemplified by the Evangelical Doctor we honor this weekend. It is by providence that St. Anthony and St. Dominic serve as dual patrons of our parish and our school in that both are recognized as preachers in an important time of reformation in the Church, when its priests and people were working to not only eliminate heresy, but to teach and preach the Word as clearly as possible to those in need of conversion and those who wanted to know Christ.

Junefest 2021— Celebrating Family Fun

On Sunday, June 6th, our St. Dominic School of St. Anthony of Padua Parish family celebrated by hosting Junefest 2021 on the school campus. We were blessed to have a beautiful sunny day with a cool breeze. Fr. Tom began the afternoon with Mass to celebrate Corpus Christi—The Body and Blood of Christ. He commissioned our school family to go forth as the body and blood of Christ to open our hearts, our minds, and our hands to love and serve our families and our community during the Junefest and all the days of our lives. Our amazing school and parish families did exactly what the readings and our pastor called us to do, and we celebrated a day full of family fun with an abundance of Holy Moments. Thanks be to God for our amazing Junefest Committee, as well as all of the dedicated parish and school families who gave so generously of their time, talent, and treasure to make Junefest 2021 such a huge success!
