January 16, 2022 — Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In the “old calendar, the “Time after Epiphany” was considered its own season, much as Advent and Lent and Easter would be considered seasons during the Church year. The “Time after Epiphany” and the “Time after Pentecost” were joined together with the reforms of the Second Vatican Council to become “tempus per annum” or “time through the year”. Unfortunately the English translation of this Latin phrase became “ordinary time”, as if to call it “uneventful” or “undistinguished” from the times of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. What was intended by the English translation was ‘ordinary’ in the sense of ‘ordinal’ numbers, that is, ‘counted’ time... first, second, third, fourth, etc. Even with this change, there is a distinctive flavor for the readings of the Time after Epiphany compared to those in and the Time after Pentecost.

One of the most notable carryovers from the “Time after Epiphany” is the connection with this week’s gospel reading. The mystery of Epiphany has always been reckoned, not simply the coming of the Three Kings to the stable in Bethlehem, but encompassed the ongoing mystery of the revelation of Christ, starting with the Three Kings event, including his Baptism in the River Jordan, and flowing through the revelation of his first miracle at the Wedding Feast at Cana. The connection between these events is made manifest in a number of traditional hymns for the season, most notably the metrical hymn “Songs of Thankfulness and Praise”.

As we read from the Gospel of John this week (before returning to the Gospel of Luke), we see of Jesus at the Wedding Feast at Cana, where he performed his first miracle at the request of his mother, Mary. The six stone jars represented the law of Moses. While this special water was set aside for ceremonial cleansing, representing the forgiveness of sins, it was not like wine, which could bring “joy to men’s hearts” (Ps 104). When the wine ran out, Jesus came forward as the ultimate host, the ultimate bridegroom, in the spirit of our first reading from Isaiah, to take Jerusalem as his ‘espoused’ and to celebrate a new union of God with his people, foreshadowing the wine poured out as his very blood in the sacrifice of the Eucharist, which would become the gift for all people in all ages who follow him. —

Vacation time! I’ll be out of town until Friday, January 28th.

In the meantime, thanks to our outstanding parish staff, everything should continue functioning as usual. For emergencies at the hospital, please ask the chaplain to contact the priest-on-call in order to receive emergency priestly ministry, if it is necessary. For other emergencies requiring the ministry of a priest, consider contacting St. Peter’s or St. Francis (both parishes have multiple priests in the house) for immediate assistance. As a last resort, the emergency line at the parish office remains active, so if there is trouble contacting a priest, the phone system will reach out to try to contact me so that I can assist in that effort.

Please note the schedule of Masses on the left— some Masses have become Communion Services and some mornings will be without Mass while I am away. I will celebrate a “Mass for the People”, usually listed as “Parish Intentions,” from my remote location. Every pastor is expected to celebrate “Mass for the People” each Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation, as a way to keep his heart and prayers close to the people entrusted to his care, even when he is away from the parish.

Diocesan Wide Pro-Life Mass and March

Friday, January 21st

All are invited to join in the Diocesan Wide Pro-Life Mass and March Event on Friday, January 21st in Springfield at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The day will begin with Mass at 10:00 a.m. followed by an 11:00 a.m. march to the Illinois Capitol. Like last year, the diocese has decided to forego a trip to Washington, D.C. and focus on a local march. The Mass and march are intended for 7th-12th graders, college students, and adults. For those who are able to join us for the Mass but are unable to join us for the march, Eucharistic adoration will be going on at the Cathedral during the march. The Cathedral cafeteria will be open to groups who would like to eat a sack lunch after the march. Please note that this space is limited and will be a first come first serve basis. You will be able to indicate this option on the registration form found at www.dio.org/youthministry/mfl as well as other information.

Thank you to all for your generosity to the Advent sock and underwear drive. Your contributions are so appreciated by the recipients through the Ladies of Charity and the Foster Care program here in Quincy. There was such a great response that the donations should last awhile even with the greater need in the area.

There were many opportunities to give and share this year. Thank you for all you do to make this a better world by reaching out to others in any way you do. You are truly living the Gospel, with your prayers and acts of kindness and generosity.

Thank you, Deacon Dennis Holbrook
