A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week is a commemoration of the events that took place in Jerusalem nearly 2000 years ago. But its reality... the impact of those events echo into our own day. Our Lord Jesus Christ did not simply come into our world to mount a magical rescue mission. He fell in the dirt, was spat upon by his persecutors, and bled for our salvation. He entered into the reality of temptation and death, bearing on his own shoulders the weight of sin belonging to his people. His was not a mission of distance and imputed (declared) justification, but rather of personal engagement and accompaniment with his people through their sufferings.

Our Lord does not stand above his people as if distant and untouched, unmoved by the sorrow of their sufferings. He knows the very depths of God-forsakenness... the abandonment and betrayal, being ignored and desecrated upon the cross. He does not simply entrust us with an instruction manual for salvation (as important as scriptures are), but he is found within the living tradition of a visible Church. This Church witnesses to his Real Presence in the Breaking of the Bread, now and until the consummation of the earth. His presence is partially realized through the hands and hearts of those who bear the name "Christian". It is found in the continuing prayer of the Church and sacrifice of her Savior unto God the Father. It is found in the signs of divine protection and intervention which are great and small among those who profess the name of Christ.

Holy Week services and activities will be held at the following times:

Palm Sunday — Masses are at their regular times. Confessions will be heard at St. Peter Church (2600 Maine Street) at 2pm until all are heard.

Chrism Mass — Tuesday, April 4 at 6:30 pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. This is the annual Mass celebrated by Bishop Paprocki to bless and consecrate the new oils to be used in sacramental celebrations. At this Mass, all the priests of the diocese gather to re-affirm their ordination promises before the bishop and before the gathered diocesan Church. All are encouraged to attend.

Holy Thursday — No Mass can be celebrated in the morning, therefore there will be no 7:30 am Mass, nor Mass at Good Samaritan Home. The Three Days ("Triduum") of the Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection begin with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. Mass at 6:30 pm, with adoration of the Blessed Sacrament taking place afterwards.

Good Friday — Mass is not be celebrated on this day. Confessions will be heard at 4pm until all are heard. The liturgy of the Passion and Death of the Lord, with the proclamation of St. John's Passion, General Intercessions, the Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion will be observed at 6:30 pm.

Holy Saturday — Our Elect for the Easter Sacraments will use the morning to rehearse and meditate on the mysteries they are about to encounter. A final opportunity for confessions will be available starting at 4:00 pm in the church until all are heard. There is no 4:00 pm or 6:30 pm Saturday night Mass on Holy Saturday at St. Anthony, or anywhere else, as the evening liturgy may not begin until after the sun has left the sky and night has begun.

The Great Easter Vigil begins after nightfall. At 8:00 pm, the Church gathers around a bonfire to light the Easter Candle and proclaim anew the Resurrection of our Lord. After the proclamation of the Word and welcoming of new Catholics through their baptism or profession of faith, the Church gathers for the first Eucharist of the Resurrection. For those who have not been to this celebration in some time, especially if they have little children, be advised that this celebration will last probably a bit longer than two hours.

Easter Sunday — The whole Church throughout the world gathers to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. Mass times at St. Anthony's are the usual Sunday times: 8:00 am and 10:30 am. The Triduum ends on the evening of Easter Sunday.

After Easter Sunday, the celebration of the Resurrection continues 50 full days, with the first eight days of Easter being a privileged 'octave', ending in the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday the weekend after Easter. Each Sunday invites us to repeat the celebration of Easter Sunday with through and including the great Feast of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. As important as Lent has been to the spiritual nourishment of the faithful, the Easter Season presents its own opportunities to encounter the grace and mercy of our Lord.
