June 11, 2023 Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

The celebration of Corpus Christi was established in the mid-thirteenth century in response to diminished veneration of the Eucharist throughout the Church and the proliferation of Eucharistic heresies in the late Middle-Ages. The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ is taken as an opportunity to re-visit the mysteries of Holy Thursday, doing so not in the shadow of the impending Cross, but in the glory of the Resurrection and Ascension of our Lord, and descent of the Holy Spirit. The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ is held on the Sunday after Trinity Sunday, so that the faithful might more fully observe this celebration with Mass, and where possible, public demonstrations by processions and adoration.

There are two dimensions of this celebration which are highlighted in the prayers and readings for this feast. First and foremost is the worship of the Real Presence of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. This personal presence of Christ is a central and necessary reality uniting the Church in faith. It is the source of our spiritual life and growth, and the hope of our eternal salvation. To hold the Eucharist up in the fullness and integrity of the Catholic Faith (orthodoxy) and to celebrate in our Sacred Liturgy and live it in our lives rightly, "in spirit and in truth" (orthopraxy), we come to know, without exaggeration, minimization, superstition, heresy, or error, the gift and mystery of our Lord's presence. In this personal knowledge of God's love for us as his children and as members of his Church, we are thus properly-equipped to share his Good News with others.

From our celebration and observance flows the unique effect of Eucharistic worship which cannot be generated in any other way, namely the unity within the Church as the Mystical Body of Christ. This reality illuminates even more fully the mystery of God's presence we celebrate in this day. In our offering of the Eucharist, we join the self-offering of God's only Son for the salvation of the world. Live it! Love it! Be it! The Real Eucharistic Presence of our Lord and the Church's identity as the Mystical Body of Christ are nothing less than the source and summit of our entire Catholic faith.

On behalf of Birthright of Quincy, I would like to sincerely thank everyone at the Mother/Daughter banquet who donated so generously to our cause! That was completely unexpected but such a wonderful surprise which we are truly grateful for! Birthright is 100% solely operated by volunteers and is 100% solely funded by donations and fundraisers from the Quincy community. We help women and girls who are faced with an unplanned and/or crisis pregnancy by providing any support they need - both emotional and material - to find the right life-affirming choice for themselves and their children. The money we receive stays in our community and it's making a positive impact for these mothers and their babies. If you'd like to know more about Birthright or would like to become a volunteer, please feel free to visit our website at <http://www.birthrightquincyil.org> or contact me at 217-430-2690. Thank you again for your support!

Sincerely, Katie Klauser
