Bulletin Deadline: Monday, Noon

Welcome to parishioners, family, friends, visitors, and all who come to worship with us on this most glorious solemnity of the Resurrection of the Lord! May the light of the Risen Lord shine upon you this day, and all the days of your life, that he may find you ready to enter into the splendor of his kingdom when he comes in glory.

Thank you to all who have made this celebration on Easter special—parishioners, our musicians, liturgical ministers, parish staff, church decorators, sacristans. The many people who make these celebrations possible reflect the glory of the members of the Mystical Body of Christ working together to give praise to God Father in union with the Holy Spirit.

We are diminished by the absence of those who have been baptized into the Body of Christ when they find themselves unable to join us due to sickness, or old age, by past hurts at the hands of the Church or its people, or simply by the distraction by the competing goods of this world. As your pastor, I ask you to continue to help me by bringing to my attention, or the attention of our parish staff, those opportunities that will help us as a parish be more effective in our outreach and reconciliation with those who have fallen away or grown lukewarm in their faith. The work of proclaiming and living God's mercy advances our core purpose given by the Great Commission to teach and preach to all peoples and places. We pray and work everyday to gather our parishioners and equip them to live the faith boldly by assuming their rightful place among God's Holy People engaged in worship, study, fellowship, service, and growth.

The Church celebrates as part of the Second Sunday of Easter, the Feast of Divine Mercy. While Lent has been a season of self-discipline and penance, with an eye toward disposing oneself to the grace of God's mercy, the fullness of Divine Mercy is seen in the mystery of the risen Christ. Divine mercy brings healing, leading us towards a whole-hearted life. In Divine Mercy, we are able to live at peace with ourselves, with others, and with God. Connected with Divine Mercy devotion is the opportunity for Eucharistic Adoration, recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and sacramental confessions, all of which will be offered at St. Anthony Church at 2pm next Sunday, April 27.

Announcement: I have been approached by parishioners interested in forming a core committee to renew discipleship—the effort to engage in ongoing spiritual growth in relationship with God—within our parish community. This group of passionate parishioners is stepping forward to discern the next steps in our stewardship efforts of recent years. The initial focus will be providing insight and vision for our Parish Vitality Study from the Diocese of Springfield in anticipation of the Centennial Campaign, followed by ongoing efforts to revitalize our parish community and sustain our legacy of faith, worship, education, and community. Please keep this endeavor in your prayers. For more information and to find out ways -you- can help this effort, contact Jordan at 217-440-3357.
